Dear

STAT

I realise that the date of your return to the other side of the Atlantic is now near. May I take this opportunity of thanking you most sincerely for your friendly co-operation with the BBC throughout the years of your sojourn at Caversham. As you know, we attach very great importance to the close co-operation which exists between our respective Monitoring Services, and we much appreciate all that you have done personally to ensure its continuance.

In wishing you bon voyage for your journey home may I add cordial Christmas greetings and all good wishes for success and satisfaction in the year that lies ahead.

Yours sincerely,

Signed: A. Beresford Clark

Dear Sir Beresford:

Thank you very much for your kind note of 7
December.

I am very pleased indeed to have had the opportunity of working with the Monitoring Service over the past six years. I have come to admire it as an efficient and skilled organization.

The Monitoring Service certainly deserves praise not only as a most competent part of the BBC but as one more firm bond between your country and mine.

Sincerely,

Signed:
